Fulton County Southwest Arts Center's Teen Artists Academy is an intensive program for serious art students ages 13 to 18. During the 4-week program (July 5 through July 30, 9am to 3pm), participants receive concentrated instruction and training in the discipline of their choice from professional artists through lectures, master classes, and exposure to art experiences. Participants also work on a collective production and art exhibition that they present to the community at the end of the program. Participants MUST be available to attend all weeks of the program.
